

Scope of Work Summary

An externally hosted, web-based computerized and networked system for tracking the status of mechanical completion and commissioning of all project equipment, that provides progress reporting and punchlist control capabilities, and that enables control, monitoring, and recording of equipment preservation.